LES LIAISONS DANGEREUSES (an epistolary novel by L'Enigme de Laclos) is the mother of this publication,....again.

PUBLISHER/EDITOR

Lenard Lakofka

4970 N. Marine Dr. (525)

Chicago, Ill. 60640

Subscription rate; ten issues for $2

game fees; experienced $5.50

novice games; $4.50

(subtract $1 if you are playing herein, or are a member of the IDA)

XX

LIAISONS DANGEREUSES is the paramount journal of postal Diplomacy, father of vox populi (ergo, androgynous), demonstrating a splendid vivacity, instead of jejune rodomontade.

( Diplomacy is the title for the game invented by Allan Calhamer, and copyrighted by Games Research Inc. 1961, 1969, 1971)

XX

This issue celebrates the purchase of a new typewriter (now if we could only get a new typist), elite (of course, you don't expect LD to be printed on a common typewriter; do you?), which will allow for about 1 more page of copy for every 5 printed. Oh joy, I hear you echo in concert. Now Lakofka can print 16 2/3% more bullshit! You lucky devils!

It is with great sadness that I have viewed the rape of North Vietnam which began in mid-December. The word murderer rises in my throat when I now consider the man elected to be our president for four more years. It seems we are returned to an era of barbarinism. We are killing human beings, wholesale, and prolonging this unjust war! The fact that Americans are dying again, as they are being shot out of the sky, does not trouble me as much as the slaughter of innocent people in N.V. Must we actually flirt with a possible EXPANSION of this war and a breakdown of any respect for this country abroad? Must we win with what some call personal honor?!?

THE DIPLOMACY SCENE

1. IDA elections; These have just finished, as of today. The final vote totals are still being compiled. The final totals will appear in the Diplomacy review in a few days. I have spoken to both John Biehl and Edi Birsan (and have gotten the list of those who paid in time from Carol Buchanan. Regardless of how the votes are counted, and regardless of what votes are disallowed because of lateness or failure to pay dues, these are the results (pending appeal and other rulings): President; Edi Birsan; Editor; John Boyer; AT Large Secretaries; Beyerlein & Biehl; Regional Secretaries: Atlantic; Nozik; Midwest; Hilliker; West; Fujihara; Canadian; Weidmark; Overseas; Feron. This plus Walt Buchanan as Vice President. Ombudsman now lies vacant and the council shall have to decide how it will be filled. My congratulations to Edi, who beat Rick Brooks and I for the post. Edi's margin is from 1 to 4 votes over me and from 12 to 16 over Rick.
2. A major event has occurred in Lebanon Ind. Waltbuchanan is the proud father of an 8 lb. 15 oz boy named Bill, as of December 29, 1972. Ms Buchanan could not be reached for immediate comment, she was watching the Chinese Acrobatic ^{team} perform in her front yard. (They were there, by the way.) I wonder if Walt sent for them to entertain his wife?
3. Beyerlein player poll #5 is due soon! In LD #36 I included a ballot for this important opinion poll. Only TWO people replied--and I was one of them! I am embarrassed, to say the very least! Please dig out your back copies of LD--if you didn't put them in the cat box, and vote. You may send in your own hand made ballot if you wish. To do this number a piece of paper from 1 to 14 and list the top 14 ACTIVE players in postal Diplomacy, as you see them. They should be IN ORDER as to their ability, in your opinion. All ballots must contain 14 names and you must SIGN your ballot. Ballots are due on or before February 6, 1973.

Also from Doug Beyerlein is his new magazine WASHINGTON REPORTS. It is a speciality magazine dealing with ratings and rating related material. Those interested should write Doug for information. No subscription rate is given.

4. Calhamer Point Count Rating list for 224 games;

THE DEADLINE FOR THE WINTER OF 1901 IN ALL GAMES CAN BE FOUND ON PAGE 1

The countries marked Civ Disorder will stay that way.

Thomas is now dropped and I'll seek a substitute (must pay a $5 fee)
